

The Privileges of Membership

Many of the programs of our church are open to all — members and newcomers alike. A few activities or positions, however, require that you formally join our church.

The privileges of membership ...

- Help provide the oasis of freedom and welcome this church represents.
- Be a valued member of a strong and dynamic community.
- Provide an opportunity to be of service to the community.
- Provide an opportunity to observe rites of passage within a community that knows you and your family.
- Participate in an excellent program of religious education for children and youth.

As a member you become eligible to . . .

- Vote on all matters that come before our Congregational Meetings.
- Serve as Committee Chair or be elected to the Board of Trustees.
- Receive pastoral counseling from our Minister without fee.
- Have the Minister's services at Weddings and Memorial Services.
It is customary for the Minister to be offered a gratuity for conducting ceremonies.
- Receive a discount on rental of the building and grounds
- Receive regular issues of our association's magazine, the "UU World."
- Access the Members Section of the Society's website, uuormond.org.
- Represent the church and cast a vote at meetings of the:
Unitarian Universalist Association Florida District.

Your Church has the responsibility to . . .

- Invite your participation, advice and help in all aspects of church life where you wish to be involved.
- Pay dues for you to: The Unitarian Universalist Association.
- Provide you with The Jotter, our monthly church newsletter, and The Member & Friend Directory
