This Week at UUCOB

January 28, 2018 Worship Service

9:15 Discussion Group Topic: "The Value of Solitude"

10:30 Service:— Rev. James Shoopman, “The Care and Feeding of Your Local Pastor” The idea behind this sermon is that the relationship with the pastor takes careful nurture, like caring for a farm or a garden, calling for sunlight, water, fertilizer and so forth. I do feel called to encourage loving and helpful relationships between clergy and congregations.

Our Valentine Dinner

In place of our usual First Friday potluck, we'll enjoy our annual Valentine Dinner on Friday, February 16th with Bill Ternent as head chef. The menu includes appetizers, salad, three choices of entrees (roast beef, salmon, or vegetarian stuffed Portobello mushroom) as well as coffee and dessert. The cost of this delicious four-course meal is $25 and includes a glass of wine, beer or soft-drinks. We'll also have some wonderful music, so be sure to add your name to the list in the back of our sanctuary.

SHARE-THE-PLATE— Meals on Wheels

On Sunday, February 18, one-half of your offerings will be shared with the Volusia Meals-on-Wheels program. This organization delivers hot food and big smiles to needy recipients. Once a day, Monday through Friday, volunteers deliver nutritious and tasty hot meals to ensure that our senior citizens get life-sustaining nutrition. While specially trained Meals-on-Wheels volunteers are delivering the hot lunches, they can also check on the welfare of these folks and bring them a friendly smile that brightens their day. Please be generous in assisting our seniors to better nutrition and in helping them to stay in their homes. All of our Share-the-Plate funds will stay in the Ormond Beach community for our seniors. Every dollar that you give is matched through Elder Source. So . . . on February 18th please be generous. --Harry White
