This Week at UUCOB

April 8, 2018 Worship Service

Discussion Group Topic: "Guaranteed minimum income for all"

10:30 Service: —Dr. Ted Mashburn, “Jesus and a Sabbath Controversy.” “Strange Things Happen on the Sabbath: Shabbat Shalom”

Mashburn, long-time professor at the University of Mobile, serves as Chairman of the Humanities Division, and is currently Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He will discuss ideas in Luke: 13-14 “But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind, and thou shalt be blessed, for they cannot recompense thee. For thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.”

Service Leader: Rita Scheeler

Life Long Learning

“The Soul and Beauty of Islamic Spain” —4:00 to 5:30 pm on Wednesday, April 11th

Martha Brandt has been engaged in a decade-long study of Islamic art in museums and cultural sites around the world. This program, using a presentation-discussion format, will focus on La Mezquita in Cordoba and La Alhambra in Granada, Spain. These renowned monuments of the Andalusia region offer beautiful art and engaging histories relating to more than eight centuries of Islamic influence in Spain.

Dr. Brandt, a retired college professor of French, comes from a life filled with art, music, literature, spiritual quest, and worldwide travel. Her experiences with these fascinating sites in Spain have been among the highlights

FAITH in April—Two Important Dates

UUCOB members have two important dates to write down and meetings to attend this month:

RALLY TO ACTION— April 9th at 6:30 p.m. at the Epiphany Catholic Church, 201 Lafayette St. Port Orange

ACTION ASSEMBLY—April 30th at 6:30 p.m., Peabody Auditorium, 600 Auditorium Drive, Daytona. This is the one meeting that no one should miss. Remember our strength is in our numbers!

See April JOTTER for more details.

SHARE-THE-PLATE WITH FAITH—Promoting Social Justice

Our Share-the-Plate partner for April 15th is FAITH or Fighting Against Injustice Toward Harmony. Our own UU has partnered with 30-plus local congregations in working together to promote social justice in our community. We have been a member of FAITH for 17 years, and as one of its founding members, we will continue, with your help, to be a strong supporter. FAITH has been instrumental in making night bus service available, implementing mental health programs in the jails, and more recently getting approval for a homeless shelter to be built that would also provide social services to the homeless. FAITH has been a leader in promoting assigning civil citations instead of criminal penalties for young people who have committed nonviolent crimes.

Please be generous when on April 15th when we share our offering with FAITH.

SUSSI THEME FOR 2018—"The Light I Carry"

For a fun and inspiring summer experience, consider joining other UU's attending the Southeast Unitarian-Universalist Summer Institute (July 15-21) on the Western Carolina University campus in Cullowhee, North Carolina, in the heart of the Smoky Mountains. Interesting workshops, nature trips, as well as sports and games are available for all age groups, as well as this year's lineup of worship leaders and concert hour musicians. Check for more information and application forms at www.suusi.org.
(If you want to know more about SUUSI, ask Cliff and Cathy Jackson and Betty Green for more information.)
