FROM YOUR MINISTER

On Sunday, July 12, Rev. Kathy's sermon will address the subject of White Fragility as in the best-selling book written by Robin DiAngelo. Rev Kathy invites you to read the book either before July 12 or some time over the summer as she will hold a community read and discussion of the book. Here is a New York Times review:

"In this 'vital, necessary, and beautiful book' (Michael Eric Dyson), antiracist educator Robin DiAngelo deftly illuminates the phenomenon of white fragility and 'allows us to understand racism as a practice not restricted to 'bad people'' (Claudia Rankine). Referring to the defensive moves that white people make when challenged racially, white fragility is characterized by emotions such as anger, fear, and guilt, and by behaviors including argumentation and silence. These behaviors, in turn, function to reinstate white racial equilibrium and prevent any meaningful cross-racial dialogue. In this in-depth exploration, DiAngelo examines how white fragility develops, how it protects racial inequality, and what we can do to engage more constructively."

Please note that hard copies are on backorder but you can download to Kindle through Amazon.
