

This Week at UUCOB

Members and Friends of the UU Congregation of Ormond Beach

This Week November 22, 2020 at UUCOB

9:15 Discussion Group, Topic: “Your odds that the White House will/won’t be turned over or that there will be a Biden inauguration at all? ”

10:30 Service: Rev. Kathy Tew Rickey, “Letting our Hearts Be Softened by Adversity” Parker Palmer says heartbreak can become a source of healing and can lead us to deeper empathy with others. How do we keep the experiences of pain, anger, and grief from making our hearts hardened and brittle? How do we let pain soften and open our hearts rather than break it into pieces?

Service Leader: Linda Kalaydjian

JOYS & CONCERNS Email your joys & concerns to Rev. Kathy by Saturday to include in the Sunday service.

Message from your Minister

Thanksgiving Day 2020 Virtual Open House at Reverend Kathy's

On Thanksgiving Day, anytime between 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. all are invited to hop onto Rev. Kathy's Zoom Personal Meeting Room to say hello and chat a while.

This invitation goes out to everyone at UUCOB, as well as my friends and family outside the church. I hope you will get a chance to stop by and say hello on Thanksgiving Day. Be prepared to share one thing you are grateful for on this day!"

Member News

On Nov 13 there was a letter to the editor from Tom Hilburn titled Finalizing the Election If you would like to read his letter you can go to <http://www.uuormond.org/index.php?cID=166>

Member Service Offering: Even before CV19 many banks were limiting free notary services to documents signed by a customer of that bank. Finding and accessing notaries is made more difficult by the virus pandemic.

I'll be glad to attempt to help (at no charge) if you should need a notary. - Phil. Elliott

Message from Your President...

We are continuing to clean and sort items in the church. If you would like to help, please call Susan Garrison (386) 265-1715, or Julie Hilburn – (386) 898-2644. We have jobs for all.\

---Julie and Susan

Please be careful.

We are still in the midst of a pandemic. CDC guidelines MUST be observed.

Please read and follow the guidelines below.

Guidelines for Renters and Congregation regarding church use.

Safety is our most important issue.

Please schedule your time in the church with Cathy Jackson. If you plan to use the church, schedule with Cathy Jackson for a meeting to make sure that you will not run into another group. No more than one group will be scheduled at any given time frame.

You MUST follow CDC guidelines:

Wear a mask upon entering the church. Your Mask may be removed for deep breathing classes such as Yoga, meditation, etc. If you do not have a mask, do not enter the church. Local drugstores sell masks.

Wash your hands frequently. Bring your own hand sanitizer as ours has “walked away” at various times so we cannot guarantee that hand sanitizer will be present, but one hand sanitizer dispenser is located in the Kitchen.
Please not remve!

Keep Social distance even while you are wearing masks.

SCHEDULE ALL EVENTS WITH CATHY JACKSON

If you go to the church at an unscheduled time and find a scheduled group present. Please return when there is no scheduled group present.

Our finance and staff work in closed rooms with an outside door so they will come and go as needed.

I know that these are really restrictive guidelines but for now, we will all be safer and more comfortable.

- Julie Hilburn

Life Long Learning Fall 2020

Carl Jung: A Study in Contrasts. Psychologist or Mystic?

Dan Kennedy

Wednesday, December 9, 2020, 4:00—5:30 p.m.

Jung was one of the major figures in the early development of both theoretical & applied psychology. There has always been a question as to whether he was as much a mystic as a psychologist. This presentation will examine that issue &, as well, early developments in psychology & Jung's career & life in general. While he is no longer a significant influence in mainstream psychology he continues to be of interest for many people.

Dr. Dan Kennedy is retired from a career that combined psychology & education, spent mainly in university settings (Univ of Oregon, Univ of Hawaii, & Florida International Univ). In retirement he has been involved in study of a variety of areas & in various adult education activities.

Please observe a change in the next Board of Trustee Meeting.

The meeting will take place December 3, at 5:30 p.m.

UU members are encouraged to attend. If you wish to attend, please contact - President Julie Hilburn <juliehilburn6@gmail.com> for the Zoom connection to the meeting.

UUCOB MISSION

Our Mission is to encourage and facilitate consideration of ethics, philosophies, and religions and the development of our individual values and beliefs; to provide opportunities for fellowship and mutual support; to establish and maintain a vigorous Unitarian Universalist presence in our local community; and to expand our membership.

This Week at UUCOB is published every Friday a.m. Deadline for article submission to bngreen@fastmail.us is the Wednesday before.
