I pledge to our Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Ormond Beach - so I can stay vibrantly alive and enjoy building my own theology freely. I pledge to be among loved friends I trust and respect which makes my life meaningful and rich. Why do you pledge? --Betty Green

Our Congregation

Our Congregation is a dynamic and intentionally diverse group. We come from many different backgrounds, a rich array of life experiences, and embrace many spiritual beliefs and practices. We are not bound by a creed or dogma. Our community honors and celebrates our individual journeys toward a deeper understanding of the awe and wonder for life. Our Unitarian Universalist beliefs have expanded to the broader concept of a unity in diversity, which affirms the supreme worth of all persons.

We are an inclusive network of fellowship, friendship and support in time of need.

Spiritual action, for many of us, is acting upon our values through social action and community service.

Our activities and worship are open to all. Our desire to challenge our thinking, enrich our spiritual journey and expand our beliefs is reflected in the many programs that we provide or participate in throughout the year. We love dialog and exploration of ideas, questions, current events, and historical insights as we search for understanding.

We have fun together in a variety of activities including our choir, and the discussion group which meets Sundays before the service, the first Friday evening pot luck, and our Life Long Learning series of seminars.

About PayPal:

We now have a donate button linked to PayPal on our website. We want to give folks an opportunity to make smaller, offering basket type donations as part of the worship service. In addition, we want to provide an opportunity for visitors to our website to donate if they are so moved.

That said, we want to encourage members and friends to make larger donations or pledge payments via check sent to UUCOB or via a direct-pay function of your checking account. There is a percentage fee associated with the PayPal service which we'd like to avoid on larger contributed amounts. Thank you for your understanding.

WE CARE.....

We have several volunteers which I call HELPING HANDS to shop for those who cannot go out or choose to isolate.

If you know of someone that needs this service, please let me know and I will see that they are connected with a volunteer. We have most areas covered, DB, PO,PC, OB and OBTS.

I am thrilled that so many people have volunteered to help their fellow man. This message has gone out to the Caring Committee members and others whose email I have, but not a mass email.

Please let your member friends at UU know that this service is available.

Thanks so much,

Joyce Nelson
