Craft Show: Calling all crafters to share their art either for sale or display. Rhoni Bachschmidt, Neil Koch and Julie Hilburn are planning a craft show at our UU on Friday and Saturday — October 4th and 5th — in Room One. They will set up the show on Friday morning in order to open at 5:30 p.m. before the October First Friday potluck dinner. On Saturday, the show will extend from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and be open to the public.

Hopefully, you will not only show your crafts, but also demonstrate how you have made an item—which can encourage other crafters and set this show apart from other craft displays in the area. Please contact Rhoni, Neil or Julie to learn more about the details of the show and how you can participate.

LLL October

Life Long Learning programs for 2019 will be varied and include topics related to philosophy, history and the arts as well as science and education. Each session includes time for audience questions and comments. LLL programs usually take place in our Room 2 on Wednesdays, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

Hurston, Hughes, and Wright: African-American Writers with Distinctive Purpose -Dan Gribbin - Wednesday, October 9, 2019, 4:00-5:30 pm

Zora Neale Hurston, Langston Hughes, and Richard Wright all came to prominence between 1925 and 1945 as literary interpreters of the lives of African-Americans. Each of them reached a wide audience, including white readers, but their purposes in writing about African-American life were by no means identical. These differences in emphasis will be the focus of our discussion.

Dan Gribbin has retired from college teaching after 37 years. He spent the bulk of his career as a Professor of English at Ferrum College in Virginia, teaching writing, film, and a variety of literature courses. More recently, he taught African-American Literature and American Literature at the University of Central Florida. He and his wife Martha live in Daytona Beach Shores and are members of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Ormond Beach, where he serves as Co-chair of the Worship Committee.

Autumn Rummage Sale (October 25 – 26)

Market Place (November 3, 10, 17, and 24). Both these events help to sustain our UU and let it flourish, so I hope all our members and friends will participate with donation, and or buying items from the Market Place offerings.
