This Week December 13, 2020 at UUCOB

9:15 Discussion Group, “Leadership” It was proposed by Mike Simmons.

10:30 Service: —Rev. Kathy Tew Rickey, “Quiet Anticipation” In the Christian tradition, Advent is the act of waiting with quiet anticipation for a miraculous birth to light up the world. What are we waiting for during these long nights and short days of the winter season? What can we learn from the countercultural acts of stillness and patience as Christmas approaches

Service Leader: Denise Carter

Message from your Minister

Reminder: Please Share Your Holiday Memories:

For the worship service on December 20th, Rev. Kathy is calling for your best, warmest, most meaningful memories of your past winter holidays. These memories could be related to Christmas or Hanukkah or other winter celebration, pastime, or adventure. Please try to put them in the form of a sentence or short phrase, like "baking cookies with grandma," or "the year the cat toppled the tree." If you want to give me more, you can but I will be putting your memories in the form of a litany - a recitation of holiday cheer. Rev. Kathy would greatly appreciate it if you would share your memories via email as soon as possible but by December 16th, latest. Thank you!

"Smoke Signals" Rescheduled for Wednesday, Dec 16, 4pm

On Wednesday, December 2nd, we attempted to view the movie "Smoke Signals" as the first of several events in our Racial Justice programming series. Unfortunately, we discovered that we cannot view a commercially produced, feature-length movie via Zoom. Therefore, we are asking that all who would like to participate in a discussion about this entertaining and insightful film to please watch it on your own between now and December 16th. It is available to rent and stream on VUDU, Amazon, Google, and YouTube, or you can borrow it on DVD from the Ormond Library. Linda Kalaydjian, Reinhold Schlieper, Ellen Nielsen, Dan Gribbin, and Rev. Kathy hope that you will want to view the film on your own and join us for a lively discussion on Wednesday, December 16 at 4pm, at the following link:

Member Service Offering: Even before CV19 many banks were limiting free notary services to documents signed by a customer of that bank. Finding and accessing notaries is made more difficult by the virus pandemic.

I'll be glad to attempt to help (at no charge) if you should need a notary. - Phil. Elliot

Reminder from your President

The goal to open the church for folks to see the renovations in person must be delayed. We had hoped that by now we would be able to announce a date for Members to come and look around the building. Unfortunately, the Community Covid19 is too high for me to responsibly set a date. However, if as an individual or family unit you would like to tour the church and have an explanation of the choices of flooring, colors storage space usage etc., I am happy to arrange that tour for anyone. This way there will be no concentration of folks at one time. Please give me a call at 386-898-2644 or juliehilburn26@gmail.com and we will set a time. There are several folks who could conduct such a tour so we will be sure to accommodate everyone.

Thanks for your patience, Julie Hilburn

We are continuing to clean and sort items in the church. If you would like to help, please call Susan Garrison (386) 265-1715, or Julie Hilburn – (386) 898-2644. We have jobs for all.

---Julie and Susan

Please be careful.

We are still in the midst of a pandemic. CDC guidelines MUST be observed.

Guidelines for Renters and Congregation regarding church use.

Safety is our most important issue.

Please schedule your time in the church with Cathy Jackson. If you plan to use the church, schedule with Cathy Jackson for a meeting to make sure that you will not run into another group. No more than one group will be scheduled at any given time frame.

You MUST follow CDC guidelines:

Wear a mask upon entering the church. Your Mask may be removed for deep breathing classes such as Yoga, meditation, etc. If you do not have a mask, do not enter the church. Local drugstores sell masks.

Wash your hands frequently. Bring your own hand sanitizer as ours has “walked away” at various times so we cannot guarantee that hand sanitizer will be present, BUT -one hand sanitizer dispenser is located in the Kitchen. Please not remove!

Keep Social distance even while you are wearing masks.

SCHEDULE ALL EVENTS WITH CATHY JACKSON

If you go to the church at an unscheduled time and find a scheduled group present. Please return when there is no scheduled group present.

Our finance and staff work in closed rooms with an outside door so they will come and go as needed.

I know that these are really restrictive

e guidelines but for now, we will all be safer and more comfortable.

There are still a few card tables for sale at the UU. Contact Julie Hilburn if you are interested in buying one or more.
