SUNDAY SERVICE 10:30 am Ludy Goodson, "Feng Shui and Playtime" “Sound flaky? Think again” reports WebMD because its use in “health design” shows it can have a “profound effect on our physical, mental, and spiritual health.” With Feng Shui [feng shway] Playtime, we’ll explore how some of its design principles might really help us to feel less stressed in our lives.

Member News

On May 29th Joanne Kennedy had a letter to the editor published in the News-Journal titled WAIT UNTIL SAFE. You can read it at <http://www.uuormond.org/index.php?cID=166>

The UUCOB Board of Trustees, in preparation for a possible reopening of the building and beginning of services, has commissioned a committee to get a sense of the congregation's feelings on this subject and make recommendations to the Board.

The Unitarian Universalist Association (the national UU organization) has stated that congregations should be prepared to have their buildings closed for as much as a year. Of course, this depends on the progress made in reducing infections and in providing a vaccine. This survey will be sent to you as a method of obtaining your input on what conditions or circumstance would make you comfortable in returning. The compiled responses will be anonymous. The summary results will be shared with the congregation.

This period of quarantine has been viewed by many of our members as a unique opportunity to examine what is important to us as a congregation because so many of our programs have been suspended. We are therefore seeking your input on what the closing of the building has meant to you.

Previous surveys have indicated that having a sense of belonging, that is, a community of fellow congregants meeting in person in a physical space is important, so this information is not being asked. Pastoral Care has continued. If you have a comment on any of these subjects not being surveyed, there will be a Comment Section on the survey for your input.

From the Board

The UUCOB Board of Trustees will meet at 5:30 PM on the third Thursday of each month on an online media to be announced. Upcoming meeting dates for the Board are June 18, 2020.
