This Week at UUCOB January 12, 2020 Worship Service

9:15 a.m, Discussion Topic: "Interesting Travel Experiences". Leader: Marilyn Sapsford

10:30 a.m. Rev. Kathy, "What it Means to Be Wholly" January's worship theme is "Integrity." Being a person of integrity means being the whole of who we are...warts and all. Integrity does not equate to perfection. How do we embrace, and more importantly, integrate those aspects of ourselves we don't admire so much?

LIFE LONG LEARNING

Wednesday, January 22, 2020, 4:00-5:30 pm. Literature of the Sea
Jim Cunningham

This LLL session will begin with an overview of the role our oceans have played in early, and even current, human cultural development – leading to enlightening literature in each era. Then the session will explore “The Seafarer” (904 AD), a snip-it from Homer’s Odyssey, a short passage from Ben Franklin’s “Journal of a Voyage”, all of Samuel Taylor Coleridge’s “Rime of the Ancient Mariner”, and look at a few more poems: Emily Dickinson’s “Exultation is the going”, Marianne Moore’s “A Grave”, Robert Frost’s “Neither Out Far Nor In Deep”, Langston Hughes’ “Sea Calm”, and finally, Robert Louis Stevenson’s “Christmas at Sea

Jim Cunningham has taught literature and other areas of the humanities for forty-four years. In addition, Jim has served as Chair of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University and more recently as Associate Vice President, Academics and Director of the Study Abroad Programs at Embry-Riddle. And finally, he is an excellent sailor and a lover of the sea.

INVITE YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY— David Roth Returns on January 22nd, 2020

Folksinger David Roth will be with us on Wednesday evening, January 22, for a 7:30 p.m. concert at our UU sanctuary. David’s songs have found their way to Carnegie Hall, the United Nations programs, several Chicken Soup for the Soul books, the Kennedy Center, NASA’s Space Shuttle “Atlantis”, Peter, Paul, & Mary and Kingston Trio CDs (and 15 of his own), five Positive Music Awards, as well as the 2015 Grace Note for Outstanding Contribution to New Thought Music. David has performed in venues throughout the US and other countries for more than three decades. From poignant to improbable, holistic to hilarious, the Chicago native (now living on Cape Cod) returns to Florida with a roller coaster ride of song and story.

Proceeds from the concert will go toward keeping troubadour David hale and happy and toward programs and other expenses at our UU. A modest $15 per ticket will allow as many of our UU members and others in our community as possible to attend the event. You can obtain your tickets from Dan Gribbin (386-956-1813) or from the UU office. Consider inviting others to enjoy music and refreshments on January 22nd beginning at 7:30 p.m. It's sure to be an enjoyable night, so join us for another evening to remember. --Dan Gribbin

DEALING WITH CONFLICT— Right Relationship Webinar

When there are challenges or issues are brewing in your congregation, who can you call? What's the difference between a Right Relations Team and a Committee on Ministry? Now let's add a Healthy Congregations Team to the mix. And then, just to complicate things further, what is Mediation? How does it differ from Facilitation? And oh, by the way, where does Accountability fit into this grand mix?

It's time to talk! Please join us for a free webinar on Right Relationship hosted by Southern Regional Field Staff Kathy McGowan, and Rev. Dr. Hope Johnson on Tuesday, January 14 at 6:30 pm.

In Memory of Mike Priano

Our long-time member Mike Priano died on December 20, 2019 at age 95. Mike joined our UU congregation in 1991, and we enjoyed hearing stories of his service as a Navy diver in World War II serving in the Pacific. In fact, as a Navy frogman in Burma, his work led to developing the underwater breathing apparatus we know as SCUBA and today's Navy SEAL training. Mike grew up in New York City, and trained as a competitive swimmer before joining the service. His family will have a memorial service for him in June in New York. We will especially miss Mike's good humor and shy smile.

UU Work Day January 25th, 9 am until noon. Join others in working together to help spruce up the UU grounds and building.

LOOK OUT....

Early in the New Year, the Leadership workshops will be announced for the spring. These workshops are designed to inform congregational interested, nomination committee members and future leaders of our congregation on the knowledge of what a member of the Board and standing committees should know. Participant will receive useful tools and handouts to enhance the learning of how our UUCOB functions. If you have any questions on the workshop, that will take place over several meetings, please contact Betty Green 386-214-2409 for more information.
