UUCOB Special Programming for August

Most folks are skittish about death and that feeling is normal. However, it shouldn't paralyze us nor should it prevent us from doing some planning around the eventuality of becoming ill and dying. The best gift that you can give your family and loved ones before leaving this earth is to make your end-of-life preferences known in the event you cannot choose them for yourself. That's why we are presenting programming in August which will include the following topics:

- Wednesday, August 21, 4:00 pm: Book discussion: “On Being Mortal” by Dr. Atul Gawande;
- Wednesday August 28, 4:00 pm: A facilitated discussion and completion of the booklet, “Five Wishes: with Janet Boes.”

Please plan to attend as many events as possible. The last event which Janet Boes is presenting will be most useful in making your end-of-life issues known. --Rev. Kathy

Board Announcement:

The UUCOB Board of Trustees meets at 5:30 PM on the third Thursday of each month. Upcoming meeting dates for the Board are August 15, September 19, and October 17. All UUCOB members are welcome to attend meetings of the Board. Any member wishing to address the Board concerning an issue or concern should contact Preston Garrison <PJGarrisonPJG@aol.com> at least one week prior to the scheduled meeting. Due to time constraints, presentations are limited to 5 minutes.

CHOIR NEWS— Weekly Singing Circle and Music Jam

For the summer, choir members and others will continue to use the choir's Wednesday time and space as a singing circle and music jam time. We'll start at 6:00 p.m. ending at 7:30. All are welcome to come sing with us. We will use the time to try out new songs and music, work on hymns from the teal hymnal, and try out some chants according to interests. Ludy Goodson will facilitate so that all who come can participate.

ALL HANDS ARE WELCOME—Join Our Next Work Day on August 17th from 9:00 to 11:30 a.m.

As we approach the new church year, our Building and Grounds Committee is confronting the challenge of making a good first impression on visitors and guests. And of course, we'd like to inspire pride in our members as well. So please come help us refresh and revive our lovely building inside and the special areas outside. A little paint, trimming, cleaning up, and a few bright objects can create a vital and engaging space. If you have any ideas, efforts, or items that might help the cause, please contact Susan Garrison or Cliff Jackson. Please join us for the work day on Saturday, August 17— many hands make light work!

We also hope you'll be one of our UUCOB "Table Cloth Elves." Our soiled laundry accumulates after events so the bin in the kitchen gets overloaded. To help out, church events chairs and our members can take home the dirty tablecloths, wash, dry, fold, and return them to the storage area. Sometimes we have just a little to do, but this is Florida— mold and mildew just love damp fabric! Please volunteer to help out on August 17.

OUR SHARE-THE-PLATE PARTNER FOR AUGUST —Journey's End Animal Sanctuary

Journey's End Animal Sanctuary is a non-profit organization ensuring that the lives of companion animals with special needs have humane surroundings and care. It is the last "forever home" for over 300 cats, dogs, and even some horses and pigs that have been abused, neglected or have special needs. Volunteers who interact with these very appreciative animals find it deeply rewarding. The bucolic grounds are serene and exceptionally well kept by a very dedicated staff. You can learn more and see photos of some of the "clients" at the Glenwood, Florida, sanctuary at their website:

<http://journeysendsanctuary.org/>

Members of our UU Alliance visited the sanctuary and were moved to make it our "Share the Plate" partner. The sanctuary is a 501-c3 charity, and tax-deductible donations are their only income. Please be generous on August 18th as we share our offering with Journey's End Animal Sanctuary.
