Members and Friends of the UU Congregation of Ormond Beach

This Week at UUCOB October 27, 2019 Worship Service

9:15 Discussion Topic: 'All Roads lead to Putin'

10:30 Service - Rev. Kathy Rickey, "Called In or Called Out?" Belonging in a covenantal community sometimes means experiencing periods of unhappiness or discomfort with the way things are going or with the way we are in relationship with others in the community. At times like these, what is the value of staying in when the excitement of membership fades?

Service Leader: John Horner

MARKET PLACE

The time has come to begin to think about the service Market Place which is a major fund raiser that was designed by Susan and Preston Garrison. This year we will need volunteers to help in a variety of ways so we may continue this fun and profitable endeavor. We will meet in October and plan to open the Market Place early November. Please see Julie Hilburn or Betty Green to learn more about the opportunities to help.

UPDATE Greetings from Sara & Evan Rivers

We've updated the blog with a new post. We actually were caught up last week, but then the rains began AND we started walking longer days. AND, we knew that we'd be parting with our many Camino friends so were spending time over meals and wine with them in the evening.

If you are seeing my Facebook posts, you'll know that we finished our Camino and arrived in Santiago on Monday - We head to Portugal tomorrow to spend time with Van and Emily, our friends from Nashville who now live in Braga, Portugal.

We should have a post and photos about the last two days of our Camino walk and then our trip to the "ends of the world" - Finisterre and Muxio up and active in the next few days. So stay tuned.

This has been an amazing journey for us - and we are so happy that we can share it with you!
With love,
Sara and Evan
