This Week at UUCOB March 10, 2019 Worship Service

9:15 Discussion Group, Topic: Healthcare for All

10:30 Service: Rev. Kathy Tew Rickey, “The Need to Wander” Sometimes a good long walk or a slow ride to nowhere can clear our heads. We’ll examine this subject with inspiration from Rebecca Solnit’s book, Wanderlust.

Service Leader: Rita Scheeler

EVENTS THIS WEEK

March 9, 2019

9:00 a.m. Just a reminder that our Work Day is approaching for Saturday, March 9, from 9:00 AM til Noon.

We have a number of interior tasks, including changing any fluorescent lights that are burned out, carpet spotting, dusting, etc. No window washing this time!

We will also do general pick up of downed palm fronds and tree debris, and other outside tasks as needed -- possibly some power washing of the playground equipment and the wall of the front porch -- any time you can give will be appreciated.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Life Long Learning

Andalucía ~ Jewel of Islamic Spain

Dr. Martha Sanders Brandt
Life Long Learning Program
Wednesday, March 13, 2018, 4:00—5:30

Dr. Brandt has been engaged in a serious study of Islamic art which she likes to share with others. This program will provide a journey of the heart from a serene mosque into a beautiful fortress and on to an elegant palace.

Dr. Brandt, a retired college professor of French, comes from a life filled with art, music, literature, spiritual quest, and worldwide travel. Her experiences with these fascinating sites in Spain have been among the highlights.

PLATO'S APOLOGY - TED MASHBURN, Ph.D. Saturday March 23, 2019, 10:00-11:30

Dr. Ted Mashburn, Professor and Department Chair of Humanities at the University of Mobile, will discuss "Plato's Apology" which relates to the death sentence of Socrates by the court of Athens and the defense of Socrates before the court. Professor Mashburn's academic and professional background includes combining religion/spirituality (e.g. Baptist pastor positions) with philosophy/theology (e.g. Master of Theology degree, University of Edinburgh and Doctorate of Philosophy in philosophy and theology, Oxford University). This promises to be a thought provoking program using a lecture-discussion format.

Reading Nietzsche in Our Turbulent Times

Kyra Von Brokoph, Ph.D

Wednesday, March 27, 2019, 4:00—5:30

Friedrich Nietzsche (1844-1900), a great thinker of the 19th century, has been called an existentialist, a nihilist, and is known as a critic of religion, morality, contemporary culture, and is remembered for the concept of the Obermensch (Superman). With his proclamation that God is dead, he announced the end of metaphysics and is thus regarded as the father of modern philosophy. Like all great thinkers he must be studied in the context of his time, place, social, political, and philosophical currents that influenced him and helped shape his controversial and contradictory views. The program will examine if some of his ideas have relevance today.

Professor Kyra von Brokoph is retired from a career that focused on German literature and culture and Philosophy at St. Lawrence University. She has published in these areas extensively and lectured at academic conferences and universities worldwide.

SHARE the Plate in March

The Alliance of our UU has chosen Family Renew Communities as the recipient of Share the Plate on Sunday, March 17, 2019. Family Renew considers homelessness in Volusia County to be a problem worthy of major concern. As Unitarian Universalists we are committed to fighting social injustice. Family Renew is a non-profit organization that gives families with children a second chance at life. We can help give that second chance by digging just a little deeper into our pockets on this special Sunday. Your donation will help Family Renew to continue its quest to give homeless families with children a brighter future. Thanking everyone in advance for your kind and generous support. When considering making a donation, keep in mind that we are so proud to announce that this year is our 30th Anniversary!
